Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all
DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE,
Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—SECRET and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.
YOUNG MEN
especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.
MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidentially rely upon his skill as a physician.
ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER.
Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.
This distressing affection—which renders life insupportable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.
A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!
Persons Ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately.
DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.
TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.
MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.
YOUNG MEN
who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are too frightful even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and employments of life, be hurried out of existence, or driven to the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiest of another is blighted with our own.
DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has indulged the sweets of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone be found him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with fearful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, from whence no traveler returns.
It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through failing into the hands of Ignorant or Unskilful PRETENDERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, leave the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of life, vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sigh over his galling disappointment.
To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most Inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all Diseases of Imprudence.
DR. JOHNSTON,
OFFICE, 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
BALTIMORE, MD.,
left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Call not to observe the name and number.
☞No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.
There are so many Paltry, Designing and Worthless Impostors now infesting themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas hang in his office.
ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.
The many thousands cured at this establishment, years after, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A CATHARTIC MEDICINE.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient and reliable purgative. The obvious reason is, that it is more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that it does once in a while effect a cure of disease, that no other cathartic will do. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, where they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

HUMOROUS.

"WHAT a fine head your boy has!" said an admiring friend. "Yes," said the fond father; "he's a chip of the old block. Ain't you, Johnnie?" "I guess so," replied he boy; "my teacher said I was a youngblockhead."

A SMART WITNESS.—A witness in a court, speaking in a very harsh and loud voice, the lawyer on the other side exclaimed, "Fellow, why do you bark so furiously?" "Because," said the rustic, "I think I see a thief."

"RACEHORSES," says Josh Billings, "are always a braggin' of their freedom! Freedom to darn their own stockings and ponds tiss their own shius! I had rather be a widower once in two years, regular, than to be a grunting, old, hair-dyed bachelor only ninety days."

"My dear madam, can you give me a glass of grog?" asked a fatigued traveler in Arkansas, as he entered a cabin on the roadside. "I ain't got a drop, stranger," "But a gentleman told me you had a barrel." "Why, good gracious," replied the woman, "what do you reckon one barrel of whiskey is to me and my children when we are out of milk?"

A CONGREGATION in Wisconsin was almost driven to the brink of despair, one Sunay, in consequence of the unexplained absence of the pastor; when the sexton rose in his seat, with great solemnity, and said: "There has been a duplex arrival of the mail. Our worthy shepherd has two lambs added to his flock. Twins, brethren, twins. Let us pray."

A FOREIGNER who heard of the Yankee propensity for bragging, thought he would beat the natives at their own game. Seeing some very large watermelons on a market-woman's stand, he exclaimed, "What! don't you raise larger apples than these in America?" The quick-witted woman immediately replied, "Anybody might know you'r a foreigner, them's gooseberries!"

THE Detroit Free Press says: "The other day a man named Abraham Spillmine, together with his wife and four children, made a halt at the Western Hotel in Windsor. And when it became necessary to register, the man took up the pen and wrote: "AbrahaM spIllmIne himSelf—aNd His wife—anD his three cHildren—aNd His daUghTer." And he laid the pen down with the air of a man who had seen about all the world worth seeing."

AN independent candidate for sheriff over in Nevada—who had been raised on sour-krout and lager beer to an extent to affect his speech—thus laid down his platform; "Suppose I am elected sheriff, and I bees out mit der boys, and der boys trinks a liddle too much and I trinks a liddle too much too; I not arrests dem. No; I prings dem around de corner and tells dem to go home. Dat is vot I do." We do not need to wait for the voting to congratulate him on his election.

AN Irishman made a sudden bolt into a druggist shop, took from his pocket a soda-water bottle filled with some pure liquor, and, handing it across the counter, exclaimed: "There, doctor, snuff that, will you?" The doctor did as he was directed, and pronounced the liquor to be genuine whiskey. "Thank you, doctor," said the Irishman. "Hapd it to me again, if you please." The doctor again did as directed, and asked what he meant. "Och, thin," said Pat, "if you will have it, the priest told me not to drink any of it unless I got it from the doctor. So here's your health and the priest's health."

"MOTHER WILL MOVE ME."

AN INCIDENT OF GETTYSBURG.

[The following lines, written by a soldier in the late war, Mr. JOHN S. BAKER, happened to come under our notice in an old uncared-for manuscript, and we print them here for the first time; and surely the public will appreciate them as we do, for one of the finest of all the war lyrics.]

I

With fearful fury, thousands laying low,
The fight had raged from morn till near mid-day;
But now, quite battle-sick, each daring foe
Had quit the scene of strife; the smoke had roll'd away
Upon the wheat. The bleeding wounded lay
Among the dead—staining the clods and stones,
And scorched to fever heath the sun's fierce ray,
Uttering anon heart rending cries and groans,
As in delerium they shook their splintered bones.

II

Both armies went to gathering up the dead
And wounded from the missile-furrowed plain:
The first to find their last and lowly bed,
No more to fight, no more to suffer pain;
The latter to be doctored up again.
Oh! honored be the name of those who lie
Stiff on the gory plain, among the hapless slain!
When glory lines the clouds that shade death's sky,
It should not, is not, half so sad a thing to die.

III

Close by a little brook that gilded by,
Rippling and sparkling o'er its pebbly way
Toward the sea, a soldier boy, whose thigh
Some cruel ball had badly shattered, lay
Just where he fell, quite early in the day.
The boy, to wet his parched and fevered lips,
To cool his brow, his burning thirst allay,
With eagerness his trembling finger dips
Into the curling stream for water, which he sips.

IV

It was a fearful and a ghastly wound.
The savage ball had left there, gaping wide
From which his life blood, dropping on the ground,
Had formed a gory puddle by his side.
And soon into the streamlet's glassy side.
He looked so innocent, so young and fair.
And was, perhaps, the idol and the pride
Of a fond mother, who, in Faith and Prayer,
Besought kind Heaven to guard her boy with special care.

V

He calmly turned his head and cast his eye
Sorrowfully to where the mountains blue
Their lofty summits stretched against the sky,
And gazed with certain rapture on each hue
That sunset painted on the distant view.
My comrade gently touched him on the side
And said—"My son shall we not move you too?"
He looked up sadly at us, and replied
"Mother will Move Me," then closed his eyes and died.

CHERRY FANNING'S LOCKET.

Cherry Panning, or Wild Cherry, as she was familiarly called by those who knew her, was truly a child of misfortune. But if a beggar in rags can be called pretty, this was the case with herself. She was about fifteen years of age when the events herein described transpired. The poor girl had a distinct recollection of a better home than the one she now occupied—if, indeed, her present place of residence could be called a home.

For many years she had been living with an uncle and aunt. The former was an old man, and a cripple, having entirely lost the use of his lower limbs by that fearful malady, inflammatory rheumatism. He was naturally kindhearted; but bodily suffering and mental anguish had rendered him irritable, and sometimes harsh. His wife was a woman of energy and great patience, and never murmured at the dispensations of Providence, and for a long time she had toiled incessantly for the support of the family, assisted by Cherry. But death came. Mr. Norton, her husband, was taken away, and from that moment the wife sank rapidly herself, until she was no longer able to toil. Cherry could accomplish but little, for she was a delicate creature, and much of her time was consumed in attending the wants of her aunt. Death appeared to be sitting near the couch of the invalid, and starvation was staring the young girl in the face.

Cherry was also a timid creature, and very easily discouraged. She would give up in despair anything she might undertake, if the slightest opposition was offered her. She would never listen to the rude jests of her poverty-stricken neighbors; so she found no companionship with them. She would fly from their presence when possible to do so, and so she gained the title of "Wild Cherry,"

It was a bitter winter afternoon, and the attic where she dwelt was foodless and fireless. The aunt lay shivering in her bed, beneath her scanty covering, while the poor girl sat in one corner, watching her, benumbed with the cold herself.—Tears had gathered in her eyes. She appeared to be thinking deeply; and at length rising she approached the couch.

She bent over her aunt and whispered, seeing her condition, he lifted her in his arms and bore her to a station house near at hand. The icy masses were cut from her body, and she was wrapped in warm blankets. Still she remained unconscious. In doing this the officer discovered the jewel; and again the impression seemed to prevail that she had stolen it. Others believed that it was a family memento, still retained in poverty, and that the child had seen better days.

The next morning the papers contained a full account of the affair, so far as was known. Cherry had become conscious; but she was very ill, and, as yet, unable to speak, so that no information could be gained from her. The locket was fully described, with the exception of two initials marked upon it. These were omitted, in order that any pretended owner calling for it should furnish the description in its identification. The locket was of blue enameled gold, and contained the likeness of a man. Upon one side of it there was a single small wreath formed of the same precious gems. It was the intrinsic value of the jewel, in the possession of so poor a girl, which excited the suspicion of theft and had caused her arrest.

TO BE CONTESTED.

The Bedford Inquirer of Friday last says that Hon. John Cessna served official notice on B. F. Meyers, on Monday last, of his purpose to contest the election in this Congressional district, by reason of illegal votes cast for Meyers.

Mr. Cessna is now in Washington, and the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune thus refers to the case:

Congressman John Cessna, who was beaten in the late election by Benjamin F. Meyers (Democrat,) in the Sixteenth Pennsylvania District, is here, and announces his determination to contest Mr. Meyers' seat in the Forty-second Congress. The Democratic majority returned was only fifteen, and Mr. Cessna claims that he can prove that more than four hundred illegal votes were cast for Mr. Meyers by workmen temporarily employed on the McConnellsville and Pittsburg Railroad now building through Bedford and Somerset counties. Mr. Cessna has prepared his papers, and served a notice of his intended contest on Meyers.

FORTY-FIVE majority in the next House of Representatives of the United States—for while it may be more it cannot be less—is a rather keen commentary upon the herculean efforts and sounding predictions of the Democrats. Had there been ordinary self-denial and harmony in some of the States, this majority would have been at least twenty more. In Pennsylvania alone we lost four members, simply by personal feuds growing out of re-nominations, and not because of decreased Republican strength. D. J. Morrell was defeated in the 17th district with a Republican majority of 1004; W. H. Armstrong in the 18th, with a Republican majority of 2,028; C. W. Gillian in the 20th, with a Republican majority of 1,812; and J. B. Donley in the 24th, with a Republican majority of 1,123. Local dissensions lost us all four districts. So in other States. The aggregate result of the Congressional elections is a grand Republican triumph, and a popular endorsement of Grant's administration.

FORTY-FIVE majority in the new National House, says the Philadelphia Press, is a better endorsement than any President ever had in the second year of his administration within the past generation. Neither Jackson, Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, Polk, Taylor, Fillmore, Pierce, or Buchanan, enjoyed such a popular approval. Not one of these men went before the people as an advocate of measures so loudly and bitterly challenged, and so entirely revolutionary.

President Grant in the late Congressional elections was the embodiment of social and political renovation. He represented the reconstruction of the Union on the basis of perfect liberty and equality, including the protection of labor against the aggressions of domestic and foreign capital. On these great questions he has never concealed his opinions. The result is a majority in the House of Representatives of forty-five and, perhaps, of fifty.

DESPATCHES from Washington represent that it is generally believed in Administration circles that England will not be drawn into the impending war in Europe, should war result from Russia's determination to be no longer bound by the treaty of 1856—at least that she will not go into it voluntarily. The theory is that she cannot afford it. Her numerous colonies are said to be in such a condition that should she become involved in war some of them would be likely to set up for themselves. Added to this are the Alabama claims, which hang over Great Britain like a suspended sword, ready at any time to come down upon her head. It is stated in diplomatic circles that, but for this condition of affairs England would have been involved long ago in the quarrel between France and Prussia. Of course Irishmen all over the world are waiting anxiously for England to get into a war to make a bold strike for the independence of the Emerald Isle.

THE general impression seems to be that at the next session of Congress the act compelling each new Congress to organize on the 4th of March, instead of the first Monday in December, will be repealed. There is a difficulty in the way of the proper organization of the House of Representatives, from the fact that several of the States do not hold elections for Congress until early in the spring. Of course these States are unrepresented in the new House; that is, in case the organization is effected on the 4th of March instead of the first Monday in December. It will be remembered that the act now in force was passed at a time when it was necessary that Congress should be in perpetual session, as a check to the dangerous administration of Andrew Johnson.

VICOMTE FREILHARD, French Minister to Peru, was appointed Minister to the United States by the Emperor just before the fall of the Empire. Freilhard, on receiving notice of his transfer, at once sailed for New York, and on landing last week was surprised to find his master a prisoner and things in France badly mixed up. On applying to Secretary Fish, the latter informed him that he could not be received, unless accredited by the French Provisional Government. He applied to the latter for instructions and is now awaiting a re-appointment.

HON. WILLIAM W. WATT, State Senator from the 1st Philadelphia district, died on Friday last. As the Republicans have but one majority in the Senate, Mr. Watt's death leaves a tie in that body. As no special election can be held until after the meeting of the Legislature, the organization of the Senate may give rise to unforseen complications and probably delay.

It is said that Speaker White, of the State Senate, will issue a writ for a special election for a successor to Mr. Watt, in advance of the meeting of the Senate.

GEN. SCHENCK writes to a friend that he will take no steps towards contesting the seat of his successful competitor, Campbell, and that if it is contested it will be by the Republicans of his district. He was defeated by excluding the votes of the disabled soldiers of the Dayton National Asylum.

DR. SCHEPTZ, now in Carlisle jail, convicted of the murder of Miss Stisneckr, is in bad health, and has recently had copious hemorrhages of the lungs. Petitions to Gov. Geary for his pardon are being renewed.

REMARKABLE CRIMINAL TRIAL.

A remarkable criminal trial has just been concluded in Philadelphia. About two years ago, on Sunday evening, Mary Mohrman, a little girl aged six years, was missing during her mother's absence at church. The last seen of her she was playing with some other girls at the corner of Fifth and Diamond streets, where a strange man came up and enticed her into an alley near by. The body was found dead the following Tuesday morning in a pond on a vacant lot several squares off, giving evidence that a horrible rape had been committed. Intense excitement ensured. Heavy rewards were offered. The best detectives were put at work—but without avail. No clue could be found to the murderer, and the matter had passed from public attention, a few detectives alone giving it watchful attention.

In November last a man was convicted of robbery and sent to jail under the name of "Charles E. Harris," whose real name proved to be John Hanlon, who resided at the time of the murder near the Mohrman family, and against whom suspicion was directed at the time. After being in jail some months, Hanlon made a confession to another prisoner named Dunn, of the murder of Mary Mohrman, with full details of the rape, his choking her to prevent outcry, resulting in her death—what disposition he made of the body during the night and on Monday—and how he came to deposit the body at the pond on Tuesday morning, whom he met, &c. The confession was communicated to the detectives, who went to work and finding the details of Hanlon's movements corroborated by various parties, Hanlon was indicted for the murder. The trial came off last week, and attracted much attention, the prisoner being defended by able counsel, including Benjamin H. Brewster, late Attorney General. The case of the Commonwealth hinged on the alleged confession made to Dunn. The latter, being convicted of infamous crime himself, was offered as a witness on a pardon by the Governor produced in Court. Judge Ludlow finally admitted Dunn as a witness, but left his credibility to the jury, instructing them that unless he was corroborated as to details of which he could know nothing, by other witnesses, so as to preclude the idea of his having manufactured the confession in order to work out a pardon, his testimony should be disregarded. The Commonwealth succeeded in weaving around this confession, as a central point, a large mass of corroborating testimony, and after a protracted trial, involving important legal points growing out of Dunn's testimony and attempts to discredit him, the case was given to the jury at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening. On Thursday morning the jury came into Court with a verdict of "Murder in the First Degree."

It is probably the first case in this country, in which a prisoner was convicted on a confession made to another convicted criminal, and is a dangerous precedent. But the Philadelphia papers generally agree as to Hanlon's guilt, and sustain the verdict of the jury.

SENATOR CONNELL, of Philadelphia, has prepared a Bill to be submitted to the Legislature for a call of a Constitutional Convention. It provides for a submission of the question of a Convention or no Convention to a popular vote at a special election to be held next summer, and also for an election of members of the proposed Constitutional Convention at the same time, to avoid the expense and delay of a second Convention. Should a majority vote AGAINST a Convention, the election of members will be void, otherwise it will be valid. The main features of the bill strike us favorably, although there are some details needing modification. Senator Connell proposes to secure minority representation in the Convention, not by the Buckalew system of cumulative voting, but by restricting each voter to casting his ballot for a portion of the members elected. Thus—the Convention consisting of 133 members, Mr. Connell proposes to elect 32 of these by a general ticket for the whole State, each voter, however, to vote only for 16. This will secure 16 of each party to start with, and being elected on a general ticket irrespective of locality, the probability is that each party would put forth its ablest men. Again—he proposes to elect the balance of the members by Senatorial districts, giving on an average three members to each district, with allowance for fractions, each voter to vote for only two, and the three highest to be declared elected. For instance, Adams and Franklin would elect three members; but as each voter is restricted to two candidates, it follows that the dominant party in the district would secure two and the minority one representative in the Convention. Mr. Connell prefers this system of securing minority representation, to Mr. Buckalew's system of cumulative voting, as being less cumbersome and more easily understood.

There seems to be little doubt that the next Legislature will yield to the popular demand, and submit the question of Constitutional Reform to a popular vote. The danger is that the opponents of a Convention, who prefer the present condition of things, will endeavor to load any bill that may be prepared with obnoxious provisions, to make it unpopular and secure an adverse vote. The friends of Reform should be on their guard, and see to it that a fair and acceptable Bill is presented.

IT is stated, apparently on good authority, that Hon. G. Dawson Coleman, of Lebanon, has consented to be a candidate for State Treasurer. Mr. Coleman is a gentleman of large means and unimpeachable integrity, to whom the perquisites of the office would be of little account. He served the Lebanon and Schuylkill district in the State Senate, in order to secure some desirable local legislation for his district. It is said that during the entire term he gave away all his salary to charitable objects, to guard against the possibility of his willingness to enter the Senate being attributed to selfish purposes. We hope the statement as to his willingness to take the State Treasurership may prove true. If so, the Republicans of the Legislature should promptly unite in his election, and thus break up the discreditable rings which for years have made the office of State Treasurer, and its stealings, a regular matter of bargain and sale. We feel assured that Mr. Coleman could not be made a party to any wrongful use of the State funds.

IT seems that the Virginia Democracy, or Conservatives rather, for they affect to repudiate the name of Democracy, have taken lessons of Tammany Hall on a small scale, and have counted out Judge Alex. H. Rives, the Republican candidate in the Fifth District, who is elected by a clear majority of the actual votes. This result has been obtained by rejecting the votes of a number of Republican precints where there was a technical informality in the returns. Congress will fix that.

CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM.

The movement in favor of a Constitutional Convention, to revise the State Constitution, is gaining strength. Leading journals of both parties advocate it, and we have no doubt the Legislature will submit the question to a popular vote. It is desirable that the proposed reforms be removed as far as possible from the influences of political partisanship, and hence in many quarters a special election is urged, to be held sometime during the summer. The only objection to such special election grows out of the expense, and the difficulty of securing a full expression of the popular will.

Gov. Curtin, now at St. Petersburg, has written a letter advocating a revision of the Constitution. After stating that he has not participated in political discussions since he has been in Russia, the Governor says:

But I cannot refrain from encouraging you in the important reform you treat so fully and forcibly in your last letter. I am rejoicing to learn that an earnest effort is about to be made to secure a general revision of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, by calling upon the people of the State to exercise their sovereign power through the channel of a reform convention. Surely, such a movement must meet with the cordial approval and enlist the positive efforts of the best men of both parties, for the necessity of thorough reform is painfully apparent to all. It is not in any sense a question of party politics, and it should be preserved from the dangers of mere partisan direction. The revision of the fundamental law of a great Commonwealth like Pennsylvania, after the lapse of a third of a century, embracing a decade of matchless progress, is a work of no common magnitude.

It is most vital to our vast material interests, and social and varied future honor and advancement, that the people should be encouraged, that the sadly-needed reforms enabled to perfect their and dispassionate forms in the most unbiased special and appropriate manner, and therefore all elections, as far removed as possible from the annual political struggles, should be held, not only for the election of delegates to the convention, but also for the ratification or rejection of the amendments which may be matured and proposed.

Such a convention at the time could not fail to elevate the character of our legislation, and to redeem our political system from many of the debauching influences which have become so closely interwoven with it. It would enforce a just deference to the popular will in the enactment of laws and in the exercise of all delegated powers; and when the will of the people is respected, the good name and prosperity of the Commonwealth are never imperilled.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE census returns show the population of New York State, in 1870, to be 4,370,846. In 1860 it was 3,880,735, again of 490,111.

TWELVE young Japanese students have just arrived at San Francisco, and they intend to complete their education in this country.

HON. Wm. H. Seward and party have arrived at Pekin, according to a telegram received yesterday at Washington. From China they will go to Ceylon.

THE Berlin press claim that from Napoleon's secret correspondence, discovered at St. Cloud, it is evident an anti-Prussian war was prepared long before the Hohenzollern incident.

Two brothers of Chatin Bottom, Mo., aged respectfully 10 and 12 years, had a quarrel a few days ago, which resulted in the elder shooting the younger one dead with a fowling-piece.

THE Southern States will furnish their quota of peanuts this season, as follows:—Virginia, 400,000 bushels; Tennessee, 300,000 bushels, and Georgia and the Carolinas, 150,000 to 200,000 bushels.

THERE is a lady at Oswego, N. Y., who, the next time she takes a dress to be colored, proposes to look at the pockets. She forgot to do it the last time, and left $120 therein, "the hard earnings of her husband."

LATE advices from Hon. Wm. H. Seward are to the effect that he was in good health, at Yokohama, Japan, and had an interview with the Mikado, which was the first of the kind ever accorded a private individual.

THE London Times of yesterday intimates that there will be a restoration of Napoleon to the throne of France. It is rumored at Tours, however, that he has written to members of the Government there, urging resistance to any proposition for a cession of French territory.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.—Chief Justice Chase, says the Washington Chronicle, has expressed the determination not to resume his duties on the bench of the Supreme Court in less time than a year from now. He will take a vacation for rest and recuperation, in order to effect a perfect restoration of his health.

NEW YORK is congratulating herself that at last the problem of rapid city transit has been solved for them by the construction of a railroad under Broadway, a portion of which has been completed and will be formally opened today. The Broadway Underground Railway commences at the foundation lines of the splendid marble building on the corner of Warren street, and extends in graceful curve directly down Broadway. The lower terminus is intended to be at the South Ferry; but the present operating section only extends a little below the City Hall, near to the north end of the new post office premises, a distance of some three hundred feet. The bed of the railway is 21 feet below the surface of Broadway, and the diameter of the tunnel 9 feet. The passenger car is about the same size as the ordinary street cars. It is very tastefully fitted up, brilliantly lighted, and has seats for twenty-two persons. It is propelled by the atmospheric system; that is to say, by means of a strong blast of air which is supplied to the tunnel by a gigantic blowing-machine.

GEN. BUTLER ON THE GRANT AND COX DIFFICULTY.—In a recently published letter, Gen. Benj. F. Butler gives his personal knowledge of the contested land claims between McGarrahan and the New Idria Mining Company, which have been mixed up in the resignation of Secretary Cox.—Gen. Butler is a member of the Committee of the House of Representatives which examined the case, heard the arguments of counsel and the testimony of witnesses, and he gives it as his opinion that neither McGarrahan nor the Company has any just title to the lands in question, but that of right they belong to the United States. It cannot be denied by the sincerest friend of Mr. Cox that he showed almost undue anxiety to give away this five millions worth of property to a private corporation at the Government valuation of one dollar and a quarter per acre, giving it away, too, to the prejudice of all claim of the United States. President Grant interfered, and his interference had this result: it possibly saved the people five millions of dollars. It was not an interference to save Mr. McGarrahan; it was an interference to protect the rights of the people of the whole country. As Gen. Butler says, "nearly a quarter of a million of the people's money had been expended in contesting this claim, and counsel as eminent as the late Edwin M. Stanton has been engaged in the case. Mr. Cox, by a single stroke of his pen, by the issuing of his patent proposed to sweep these two hundred and fifty thousand dollars into the treasury of the New Idria Mining Company, and at the same time make them a present of a tract of land worth five millions of dollars."

Summary of War News

THE RUSSIAN DEMONSTRATION

PROBABLE PEACEFUL SOLUTION

THE WAR IN FRANCE

MONDAY, Nov. 21.—The complications growing out of Russia's demand for a modification of the treaty of 1856, have, during the past week, overshadowed the struggle progressing in France. The excitement produced at the various European Courts on the first announcement of Russia's purpose, is gradually subsiding, and it is not likely that immediate War will be the result.

Prussia, while denying any secret understanding with Russia, will not interfere, and intimates that Russia's demands are not unreasonable. Italy takes the same view, having enough on her hands in the Roman question. In England there is a division of opinion; Austria and Turkey will not resort to arms, unless backed by other powers.

Prince Gortschakoff is said to have replied to the note of Lord Granville in a courteous manner, but strenuously insisted on the points made in his first announcement that Russia considered abrogated certain portions of the treaty of 1856. The English Cabinet is divided in opinion, and it is thought that a new Ministry will be called. Queen Victoria has expressed, through the Prince of Wales, her dissatisfaction with Lord Granville's reply to the first note from St. Petersburg. John Steuart Mill and the historian Froude have written letters against war with Russia, and the feeling in England is growing more peaceful. The armament of Gibraltar and Malta has been postponed and the Channel fleet ordered to the Levant. The official journal at St. Petersburg denies that Russian neutrality was offered to Prussia on condition of the setting aside of the treaty, and says that only a modification of the terms is desired. There is now an expectation in London that a Congress will be called, and that Russia will succeed in having its demands complied with, as no other nation will join England in war. One article of the treaty binds the signatory Powers to submit to the arbitration of a friendly Power before commencing hostilities, and this provision is expected to prevent war.

Nothing of special moment has transpired in France, except a check to Gen. Paladine's movement north of Orleans, in the defeat of the French at Dreux by the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg, whereby the French army of the Loire is again put on the defensive.

Numerous engagements between small bodies of troops have occurred recently in the Department of Aisne, north and northeast of Paris, with varying advantages.—At Montmedy the French garrison attempted a sortie, but were badly repulsed, losing heavily.

In the South a detachment of Garibaldi's command defeated a Prussian force near Chatillon. The battle at Dreux on Thursday appears to have been of considerable importance, the result being to drive back a portion of the recently victorious French Army of the Loire.

It is anticipated at an early day Trochu will attempt a general assault from Paris on the German lines around the city. The renewal of armistice negotiations is rumored, but not from any well authenticated source.

TUESDAY, Nov. 22.—A St. Petersburg newspaper says that Turkey has assented to the annulment of certain conditions of the treaty of Paris, and that the Russian Minister returns to Constantinople with full instructions from the Imperial Government. The Brussels Independance Belge takes a despondent view of the situation, and believes there will be a general war before the 1st of January. The London Post denies that Italy has refused to enter the alliance against Russia with England and Austria. At Vienna it is believed that the moral support, at least, of the United States will be given to Russia. A London despatch says that all leaves of absence to the Guards have been cancelled, and orders have been issued to prepare for active service.

There is nothing of importance from France. The London correspondent of the New York World, (whose despatches are always sensational and to be received with large discount,) telegraphs that the French Army of the Loire is said to be making a great movement, in which General De Palladine's forces will be joined by those of Bourbaki and Keratry, after which the three armies will advance on Paris while Trochu makes a desperate sortie from the city on the besiegers. A Berlin despatch says that it was reported there that Paris is disposed to yield.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 23.—At London there is a growing feeling that the demands of Russia will be settled without war, and confidence is being restored in commercial circles.

There has been no movement of importance in France. The Prussians are vigorously preparing the sieges of Thionville and Montmedy.

Victor Emanuel will not enter Rome until New Year's day.

SECRETARY FISH has submitted to an interview regarding the European situation. He thinks the attempt of Russia to abrogate the treaty of 1856 for the neutrality of the Black Sea will not necessarily result in war, but that present complications may find a solution in a Peace Congress of all the European Powers. He believes that such an international conference may also attempt to settle the difficulties between Prussia and France. The former, however, will repel all such attempts. In fact, the present condition of Europe is purely problematical, because there are many influences at work which may develop unexpected and astounding results. The existence of the present Government in France mainly depends, he thinks, on the result of the peace treaty between it and Prussia when it is made. If France succeeds without a cession of territory it will be able to maintain itself with the people, but if it is compelled to make a session it will be overthrown. The empire is at an end, and the only Government that can follow the Republic will be a kingdom with one of the Orleans or Bourbon family at its head.

GENERAL SHERIDAN'S WHEREABOUTS.—A recent letter from Generals Phil. Sheridan and J. W. Forsyth, who have been watching the movements of the contending armies in France, was dated at Brussels, Belgium. They had been treated with great respect and kindness by the King of Prussia and his officers, and every facility rendered them for the study of the art of war as practised in Europe. They were present at all the great battles, from the Rhine to the Seine, and were in position where they could watch every movement of both armies during the severe struggle between them. From Brussels the distinguished military travelers will go to Geneva, Switzerland, thence to Rome, and possible up the Mediterranean to Constantinople and St. Petersburg. If Paris is taken shortly they go back to the city for further military observation. Both officers are well, and highly pleased with their trip thus far.

NEWS OF ENGINEERING COMPANIES.

CARROL.—A. B. Grove, of Abbottstown, Adams county, has purchased the hotel property of R. F. B. Warehime, in Manchester, Md., at $3,375.

CUMBERLAND.—The Carlisle District M. E. Camp Meeting Association has purchased Mr. Brown's entire farm at Red Bank Station, for camp meeting purposes. This tract of land is in close proximity with the ground on which the meetings have been heretofore held.—The Volunteer gives as a fact that a week ago, Mr. Levi Mellinger, residing in North Middleton township, discovered two wolves worrying his sheep. He put his dogs on them and chased them to the mountain, where all trace of them vere lost.

FRANKLIN.—John Spidle, of Fayetteville, whose injury on a hunting expedition we noticed last week, died on Saturday evening, aged 21 years.—J. B. Russel is sinking a shaft on the "Watson" farm, near Waynesboro, on the South Mountain about 3 miles north of the Emmittsburg pike, in search of copper ore, the indications being promising.

YORK.—Charles Fry has been appointed Postmaster at Peach Bottom, vice Mrs. Geiger resigned, and Thomas Groome at Lewisberry vice R. N. Wright resigned.—The store and post office in Wrightsville, kept by McConkey & Cook, were entered by burglars on Thursday night of last week. They assisted an attempt to arrest them, and fired three pistol shots, one ball striking James Heppenstall in the neck, inflicting a slight wound. One of the burglars was afterwards arrested on the Wrightsville Pike, by officers from York, and committed to jail. The prisoner attempted to escape, while being taken to the County Jail, and was thereupon shot in the wrist by one of the officers.—Emanuel S. Smith, of Loganaville, has been appointed Clerk to the County Commissioners.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for December, is on our table, in advance of the other monthlies. It is a capital number both in the line of illustrations and letter press. It has two fine steel plates, a large colored fashion plate, a colored Berlin pattern, and over 50 wood engravings. This is always a favorite magazine with the ladies, and the proprietor proposes largely to increase the attractions for 1871, and offers large inducements to clubs. Now is time to subscribe. See advertisement in another column.

☞We are in receipt of the initial No. of the Young Pilot, a handsome monthly, hailing from Chicago, devoted especially to the interests of young people in their teens. Contents equal to any magazine of like character. Its contributors number many of our best writers. December number free to all subscribers for the year 1871. $1 per annum. Send stamp for specimen copy. Address, "Young Pilot Publishing Co.," Chicago, Illinois.

THE TERMS FOR 1871.—The SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES of Philadelphia, is the oldest, ablest, largest, cheapest and best weekly paper for Superintendents, Teachers and all others who are engaged or interested in the Sabbath school work. Its publishers announce reduced rates of subscription for the new year, with favorable terms for its introduction, and we recommend our readers to send a stamp for sample copy of the paper giving new terms for 1871.—Address J. C. Garrigues & Co., Publishers, 608 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ADVERTISING.—The York True Democrat indulges in the following sensible reflections in reference to the business men of that place, which will apply with equal force to those of this community, and we commend them to their careful and thoughtful perusal.

"It is astonishing, indeed, to witness with what reluctance many business men in this latitude avail themselves of advertising, persistent, judicious advertising. They are constantly complaining of dull times, and it is no wonder that it is dull times to them, for they do not sieze the proper means to make times brisk, by advertising and letting the people know what they have to dispose of. A feeble, spasmodic effort is occasionally made; but after it is pursued a few weeks or months, the first and only advertisement they insert stands week after week, month after month not a word or line of it being altered. Business men are progressive, and do not care to look at one thing, year in and out—they love a change. If a merchant has a fine lot of dry goods for sale it will not do to say he just has a splendid selection of goods—he must go to some trouble to minutely describe them; bring the knowledge of the fact before the public in different shapes. Many a gentleman or lady will visit a place where anything is persistently advertised, if for no other reason than that of curiosity, and we know that this is one of the great governing motives of humanity, they frequently pay more for it than they will for something which is really valuable which is not sought to be brought to their attention. Persistent advertising, to be sure, costs a little more than slip shop advertising, but then the immense superiority of results of the former over that of the latter. With the experience of thousands of the wealthiest men in the country as a criterion, who declare that all their wealth has been the result of judicious, persistent advertising, it is remarkable that their example is not oftener followed, when it is known that it will absolutely bring the result desired."

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

The Sunday School officers, teachers and friends of East Berlin and vicinity assembled in the Union church at East Berlin on Saturday afternoon last, for the purpose of organizing a Sunday School Teachers Institute.

Dr. E. W. Meisenhelder was called upon to act as temporary chairman. After spending a few moments in prayer, the Institute proceeded to organize permanently by electing Mr. E. S. Wagener President, and J. O. Baughman Secretary. After spending a short time in singing, the representatives of the different Schools were called on to report the conditions of their schools. Mr. I. S. Trostle of East Berlin, Mr. Geo. Wolf of Abbottstown, Mr. Wm. Emig of Emigsville, and Mr. J. B. Baughman of Paradise, responded. The schools reported are in a promising condition. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in discussing questions relating to Sunday Schools, their management, &c. A few letters from friends of the Sunday School cause were read, regretting that they were compelled to be absent. After singing a few more hymns, the Institute adjourned at 4 o'clock, to commence again at 6.30.

EVENING SESSION.—Institute was called to order by the chairman. The first half hour was spent in devotional exercises. Minutes of the afternoon session were read and adopted. The question, "Should Sunday Schools be continued throughout all the year?" was ably and interestingly spoken upon by Col. J. A. Staley, Mr. J. B. Baughman and Dr. N. H. Shearer. After the singing of another hymn the question, "How may we best enlist the co-operation of adults in the Sabbath School?" was opened for discussion by Dr. N. H. Shearer and freely spoken on by the friends of the cause. Dr. E. W. Meisenhelder then spoke on the subject, "What should be the qualifications of a Sabbath School teacher?" and "Should unconverted teachers be employed?" He was followed on this same subject by Dr. N. H. Shearer, Col. J. A. Staley, Messrs. J. B. Baughman and E. S. Wagener. After this an opportunity for general remarks was given.

On motion of Mr. D. E. Hollinger, a committee of five was appointed by the chairman to make the necessary arrangements for the next meeting. The committee as appointed consists of Messrs. J. C. Hildebrand of East Berlin, D. E. Hollinger and J. G. Wolf of Abbottstown, and Jos. R. Deihl and David Hoke of New Oxford.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the friends from a distance for their presence and for their efforts to make the exercises interesting, also to the members of the Church Council for the use of the Church, when the Institute adjourned.

If the interest which was manifested continues, the Institute will doubtless prove a blessing to the schools by which it is supported.

J. O. BAUGHMAN, Sec'y.

A CHANCE FOR BARGAINS.—Messrs. Cobean & Cunningham having determined to close out their stock of Ready-made Clothing, are now selling all kinds of Coats, Pants, Vest, &c, at largely reduced prices—many of them less than cost. WHAT HON. THAD. STEVENS THOUGHT ABOUT MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

Mr. Wm. Lambert, First Assistant Engineer, U. S. N., writes to Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., of Lancaster, Pa., the following: "In the course of New Orleans, I was wounded in the right leg by a shell. The wound healed up, but a bad sore broke out near my ankle. Several doctors tried to benefit me, but none succeeded. It was then that the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, Member of Congress, saw me, and, on learning the nature of my trouble, told me about MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS, saying, 'It is the most wonderful combination of medicinal herbs I ever saw. I use it myself, and I know that it will cure you in a very short period. Try it, my friend, try it. I will have it sent to you.' The result fully justified the high opinion of Mr. Stevens regarding your Bitters, for its use was followed by a perfect cure." Sold by druggists generally. Price one dollar per bottle. Nov. 4—1m

"UNQUESTIONABLY THE BEST SUSTAINED WORK OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in Harper's Magazine. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to satisfy the most ardent of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and contain so much of great scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge." The great design of Harper's is to give correct information and entertainment to the great masses of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which Harper's Magazine would not be an important and welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine that can afford to be more liberal in its purchases without. Many Magazines are accumulated.—Harper's is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is but a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.

LOCAL ITEMS.

RESIGNED.—Rev. H. W. McKnight has resigned the pastoral charge of the Lutheran church at Newville, Pa., on account of ill health.

PAYMENT OF PENSIONS.—Hereafter the payment of Pensions will be made quarterly, instead of semi-annually. The first quarterly payment will be made on the 4th of December next.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—By arrangement among the Pastors of the several churches in town, union services will be held in Christ Church, on Thanksgiving day, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

THANKSGIVING.—To enable our employees to observe Thanksgiving day, we anticipate our usual publication day, and issue the STAR AND SENTINEL this week on Wednesday.

RECOVERED.—The horse stolen from Rev. M. J. Alleman, of Littlestown, was recovered on Thursday of last week, near Two Taverns, where he was found running at large.

PURCHASED.—The Littlestown Press says the iron for the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad has been purchased, and will, in all probability be laid as far as Taneytown by the first of January.

HORSE STOLEN.—On the night of the 28th inst., a bright bay horse was stolen from the stable of A. Ertter, of this place. The horse is eight years old, is a cribber, and has the blind spavin on the right hind leg.

PREMIUMS.—At the recent Agricultural Fair at Carlisle, Mr. Charles W. Griest, of this county, took six first premiums for grains of different kinds, as well as the first premium for the largest pair of turkies.

RAILROAD MEETINGS.—Several meetings have been held at Abbottstown, East Berlin, and other points, on the line of the proposed Railroad from Gettysburg to York, to arrange for stock subscriptions and further the enterprise. We understand a good feeling prevails.

APPOINTED.—Adam Larew has been appointed Postmaster at Latimore P. O., in this county, vice John C. Warner, resigned.

Fabius M. Wagener has been appointed Postmaster at New Oxford vice Mrs. Blair resigned.

IMPROVEMENT.—John Becker has recently finished a neat two-story frame House, 24x26 feet, in McKnightstown, which adds much to the improvement of the upper end of the village.

C. S. Hildebrand is erecting a two-story frame Store Room and Dwelling on King street, East Berlin.

DEATH OF JUDGE WILL.—Hon. George Will, the oldest citizen of Littlestown, died in that place on the 12th inst., in the 83d year of his age. A number of years ago he held the position of Associate Judge in this county. For many years past, he has discharged the duties of Justice of the Peace, esteemed for his integrity and general uprightness of character.

COURT.—On Monday next, the November Court will commence, to continue two weeks. The first week will be devoted to criminal and the second to civil cases.

As business connected with the Court will bring to town many persons during the next two weeks, it will furnish a convenient opportunity for subscribers to bring or send in their subscriptions. We hope our friends will bear it in mind.

SWINDLING.—The swindlers who have their headquarters in New York and deal in Greenbacks, are flooding the country with their circulars, offering to furnish notes of denominations at exceedingly low rates. We have repeatedly exposed the operations of these swindlers, who send out artfully prepared circulars calculated to impose on the ignorant and unwary.—We renew the caution to our readers to pay no attention to any of these propositions, if they do not want to lose their money.

IN BUSINESS.—Mr. Keller Kurtz, formerly of Gettysburg, and more recently of the firm of Kurtz & Monaghan, New York, has entered into partnership with H. W. Graves, formerly of the Meriden Britannia Company, and under the firm name of Graves & Kurtz, commenced the manufacture of the finest quality of Silver Plated and Britannia Goods. The manufactory is in Newark, N. Jersey—salesroom at 179 Broadway, N. York. Mr. Kurtz is a clever fellow, has superior business qualifications, and we wish the new firm abundant success.

SALES.—Francis X. Clunk, as Trustee for the sale of the real estate of Matthias Martin, deceased, in Irishtown, has sold the small farm of decedent—24 acres, with improvements—to W. J. Kuhn, at $117 per acre; and a meadow of less than two acres to John Ginter, for $85.

Alexander Bucher has sold his house, shop and lot, in New Salem, to Frederick Sweitzer, of Hanover, for $1500.

Mr. A. Miller has sold his house and harness shop in New Salem to J. Keller, of Hanover, for $1140.

Mrs. Harriet Harbold and Lizzie Raber have sold a small property on King street, in East Berlin, for $770.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Michael Leib, aged 64 years, residing in Paradise township, York county, two miles below Abbottstown, a town of considerable property, was killed on the 14th inst. He had been paying a visit, in company with his daughter, to a sister at Wrightsville. On their return home the horse took fright at a train of cars near Wrightsville, and became unmanageable, throwing Mr. Leib from the buggy and breaking his arm. After receiving surgical attention, he again started for home, his daughter driving. At the second toll gate this side of York, the horse again took fright, upset the buggy, precipitating Mr. Leib down an embankment and breaking his neck. The daughter received severe injuries also.

ACCIDENT.—David Troxell, jr., of this place, who runs Bigham & Co's. Baltimore car, met with a serious accident on Tuesday afternoon last at New Oxford, which came near proving fatal. The car was on the siding at Hersh's Warehouse, and while it was in motion Mr. Troxell undertook to step from the car into the Warehouse; but missing his footing, he was caught between the warehouse and car, and thus rolled between the two, the space being very narrow, until the car cleared the warehouse, when he fell to the platform badly crushed and apparently seriously injured. He was brought to Gettysburg in the evening train, when Dr. C. Horner was called in. We believe no bones were broken, and he is now doing well. It was, however, a narrow escape.

HOME COUNCIL.—A full attendance of the members of Howe Council, No. 213, O. U. A. M., is requested at their Council Chamber, this (Wednesday) evening.

THE ANNUAL THANKSGIVING.—Our issue this week will see the light among the anticipations and realizations of the Annual Thanksgiving. Few and precious are holidays in America. Indeed, we have but two that are strictly American. One of them, standing among the summer roses, celebrates the nation's independence of its mother across the sea; the other, with dead leaves rustling at its feet, acknowledges the nation's dependence on its Father in Heaven. Brothers in blood are they, and born of Puritanism. To the principles of personal and political liberty planted in the land by the Pilgrim Fathers is directly traceable the Declaration of Independence, with all its beneficent results, while the Annual Thanksgiving is an institution which comes to us as they conceived and shaped it. Independence of all political rule—dependence, nationally acknowledged, upon God—what better legacy could they have left us than two holidays, respectfully devoted to a celebration of these grand facts of the national life.

Quarrel with the old bigotries of Puritanism as we may, criticise as we may its mistakes, it is indisputable that that which is purest and best in American life had its root in it. To obliterate what Puritanism has done for liberty, for popular education, for morals and religion in America, would be to disrobe the nation of its fairest charms, and despoil it of its choicest treasures. Indeed, we have something to be profoundly thankful for, as a nation, which the fathers missed; and that is—the fathers themselves. Their sacrifices, their heroic example, their pious and purifying influences, thrown loose upon the atmosphere for us to breathe, or embodied in institutions that mould and order our lives, are among the richest blessings that claim acknowledgment upon each recurring Thanksgiving Day.

We are glad to believe that this holiday is becoming more widely observed with every passing year. It is a healthy thing for the nation to turn its thoughts unitedly to the great fact that God governs and gives. It is a healthy thing for separated families to gather back to the old homes, and re-light the old altar fires. It is a healthy thing for childhood and youth and old age to find themselves in sympathy of joy around a common event. Were there nothing in the day, and nothing of it, but the family re-unions of which it furnishes the occasions, it would be precious: but when it becomes a shrine at which a nation kneels with offerings of gratitude and praise, it is priceless.—Scribner's Monthly.

ODD FELLOWSHIP.—At the last session of the Grand Lodge of the U. States, held in Baltimore, some important changes were made in regard to the status of members of the Order of Odd Fellows suspended for non payment of dues. Official notice of these changes having been communicated to Subordinate Lodges, they are now in force. As the membership are interested in the subject, we condense the new law for their information:

1. Members cannot be expelled for non payment of dues, but are to be suspended or dropped from the roll.

2. Members thus suspended or dropped, can be re-instated within one year by the payment of a year's dues; after one year re-instatement can be gotten on payment of the fee charged initiates of the same age.

3. Suspended members desiring to unite with a Lodge in the same jurisdiction, can be re-instated and receive a withdrawal card, at any time within five years, on payment of a year's dues and the price of a card; after five years, instead of re-instatement, a dismissal certificate is granted on payment of $1.

4. Dismissal certificates for suspended members desiring to regain membership in another jurisdiction, are to be issued in cases where a Lodge refuses to re-instate. A dismissal certificate can be had as a matter of right for $1.

5. These dismissal certificates do not give the privilege of visitation, but simply serve as the basis of application to another lodge for admission to membership.

6. Non-affiliated members of the Order over 50 years of age, can be re-instated as non-beneficial members, upon such terms as the local law may prescribe.

The report of the Grand Secretary at Baltimore, shows that the Order is increasing rapidly in numerical strength and wealth, viz: net increase of membership during the year, 20,602; number of members relieved, 25,054; number of widowed families relieved, 3,876; amount paid for relief of members, $78,648.81; amount for relief of widows' families, $122,043.65; amount paid for educating orphans, $19,444.16; amount paid for burying dead, $132,661.21. Total relief, $359,409.86. Total receipts, $2,714,258.93.

The higher or encampment branch of the Order initiated during the year 9,849 members; admitted by card, 1,380; reinstated, 520; total, 11,729. Expelled, 434; deceased, 437. Total relief for the past year, $92,216.41. Total receipts, $335,465.26. Lodge and, Encampment combined—aggregate receipts, $3,049,753.20; aggregate relief, $951,086.27.

The aggregate membership of the Order, exclusive of the jurisdiction of Austria, is 920,000.

MEMORIAL CHURCH FUND.—A meeting of the Memorial Church Association of Gettysburg was held in the M. E. Church, on Thursday evening the 17th inst., R. Q. McCreary, Esq., President of the Association, in the chair. The meeting was called to determine the disposition of the funds collected towards the enterprise. After an interchange of views the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, the failure of all efforts to secure the amount of money required to build a "Memorial Church," as contemplated by this organization, has demonstrated the impropriety of abandoning that enterprise; and WHEREAS, the greater portion of the funds in the hands of the Treasurer has been raised in the M. E. Church, and by the efforts and contributions of its membership; and WHEREAS the M. E. Congregation in Gettysburg greatly needs and is endeavoring to accumulate a fund for the erection of a new and enlarged church edifice, and it is believed that most, if not all, of the subscribers to the Memorial Church are willing that their contributions shall be applied to that object; therefore be it Resolved:

1. That the idea of erecting a Memorial Church Edifice be abandoned and the business of the association closed.

2. That all monies subscribed and paid by individuals into the Memorial church fund be refunded to the subscribers by the Treasurer, who is hereby authorized to refund the same, if demanded, and to procure the assent of as many as are willing that their contributions shall be appropriated to the building fund of the M. E. Church.

3. That all other funds of this association, and all contributions released, or not claimed, be appropriated to the building fund of the M. E. Church, to be applied only to the erection of a church edifice in Gettysburg, and the Treasurer is hereby directed to apply the same accordingly.

In this ratio the pickle to be increased to any quantity desired. Let these be boiled together until all the dirt from the sugar rises to the top and is skimmed off. Then throw it into a tub to cool, pour it over your beef or pork, to remain the usual time, say four to five weeks. The meat must be well covered with pickle, and should not be put down for at least two days after killing, during which time it should be slightly sprinkled with powdered saltpetre, which removes all the surface blood, &c., leaving the meat fresh and clean. Some omit boiling the pickle, and find it to answer; though the operation of boiling purifies the pickle by throwing off the dirt always to be found in salt and sugar.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—A new counterfeit, of the latest issue of the fifty-cent currency, has made its appearance, which, although the engraving is of a coarser character and the fine lathe work wanting, though imitated coarsely, yet it well calculated to deceive. The red and blue fibres of the paper of the genuine are imitated by printing in the counterfeit, the long beard of Secretary Stanton is darker and the figures "50" on the right hand are surrounded by solid black instead of fine lines as in the genuine. On the reverse, the counterfeit may be distinguished by the "s" in "Customs" failing to touch the line encircling the large oval to the next, and also by the absence of shading and the fine lines around the "50" in the corners.

CHANGE OF FIRM.—The firm of Rebert & Elliott has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Elliot withdrawing. Mr. Rebert has associated with him Mr. John H. Bushman, and the business will be carried on under the firm name of Rebert & Bushman. See adv.

POCKET BOOK LOST.—J. T. Weikert lost his Pocket Book on the 17th inst., between Gettysburg and Greenmount. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning it to the owner, or leaving it at the "Star and Sentinel" office. 1t

DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.

The printed addresses which appear upon the margin of every issue of our paper, afford a good opportunity to delinquents to ascertain how their subscription accounts stand with the office. For instance, if the address reads: "John Jones, Nov68," it means that the said John Jones owes on his paper for two years, up to November 11, 1870. We hope, therefore, that these gentle marginal reminders will serve to secure the payment of backstanding subscriptions, and, furthermore, that the remittances will be promptly made.

We renew the offer to receive $2 per annum on all back subscriptions that may be paid between this date and the 1st of January, 1871. Those who desire to save two dollars a year, will find it to their own interest promptly to avail themselves of this offer.

Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb,
The Saviour has passed through its portals before thee,
And the lamp of His love is thy guide through the gloom.
Thou art gone to the grave—but 'twere wrong to deplore thee,
When God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian, thy Guide;
He gave thee, and took thee, and soon will restore thee,
Where death hath no sting, since thy Saviour hath died."

STRAY.—Came to the premises of the subscriber in Franklin township, Adams county, about the 18th of October last, a large white horse, with large horns. The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges and take it away.

Notice to the Public!

THE undersigned is running a Line of Stages from Hagerstown to Gettysburg, leaving former place on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 7 o'clock, A. M., passing by Leitersburg, Waynesboro', Quincy, Mercersburg and Fayetteville, Franklin Dale and Fairfield arriving at Gettysburg about the past four o'clock and returning from Gettysburg on the same days, arriving at Farm, Garden & Household.

FEED HAY CAREFULLY.—There are hundreds of tons of hay lost every winter among farmers by careless feeding. We have been astonished sometimes when witnessing the amount wasted around barnyards and stacks. This waste is entirely unnecessary, and if it was made the rule of every farmer not to feed any kind of stock upon the ground, thousands of dollars might be saved annually. There are times, to be sure, when the earth is frozen dry and clean, but if racks are not provided full half of the time the hay will be dealt out either in wet snow or mud, and a good portion lost.

Portable racks should be used around stacks and their location changed every few days; the racks should be so constructed that the stock can get at their feed handily, and at the same time made so that the hay cannot be pulled out and trampled under foot.

CHEAP VEGETABLE CELLAR.—Sink a barrel two-thirds of its depth into the ground (a box or cask will answer a better purpose), heap the earth around the part projecting out of the ground, with a slope on all sides; place the vegetables that you desire to keep in the vessel; cover the top with a water tight cover; and when winter sets in, throw an armful of straw, hay or something of that sort, on the barrel. If the bottom is out of the cask or barrel so much the better. Cabbages, celery, and other vegetables will keep in this as fresh as when taken from the ground. The celley should stand nearly perpendicular, celery and earth alternating. Freedom from frost, ease of access, and especially freshness and freedom from rot are the advantages claimed.—Household.

TO PREVENT CATTLE JUMPING FENCES.—The following singular statement was made at a late meeting of the American Institute Farmer's Club, New York: To prevent steers from jumping fence clip off the eyelashes of the under lids with a pair of scissors, and the disposition to jump is as effectually destroyed as was Samson's power, by the loss of his hair. The animal will not attempt to jump a fence until the lashes are grown again; of this we are informed by Samuel Thorne, the great breeder of Duchess county, who assured us that he had test-d it upon a pair of breaking oxen. As it has been of great value to him, he hopes it will be tried by others; no harm can be done by it, I should suppose."—Delly's Experimental Journal.

RESTORING WHITE FLANNEL.—To restore the original appearance of white flannel which has turned yellowish by lying for a long time or from wear, soak for an hour in a weak solution of bisulphite of soda, then add a little dilute muriatic acid, stir well and cover the vessel for twenty minutes. After this take the flannel out, rinse it in plenty of soft water, and dry in the sun. The flannel will be purely white.

THE Ohio Farmer says: "Where vegetable manure has long been in the soil, held by clay and lime, there is your soil for wheat. New manure (carbonaceous) willmake straw, but will not stiffen it or form a plump berry. The exceptions are when the year is unusually favorable. Many a good wheat crop, heavy in straw, has been ruined by too much manure, and is ruined yearly.

WHEN women come to sit in the jury-box, possibly infants may get to be criers in court.

DODGE'S PATENT

REAPER AND MOWER

AND SELF RAKER.

THIS machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over those machines which have heretofore ranked as first class. It is a perfect Self-Raker and a superior Mower.

A careful examination will convince any one of its superior merits over all others, in simplicity, strength and durability. As a Self-raking Reaper it has no equal to our knowledge.

The Dodge rake is attached to no other machine in the United States, except to those machines built by the DODGE & STEVENSON Manufacturing Co., Auburn, New York.

READ THE NOTICE OF THE COMPANY TO OUR AGENTS:

Having been informed that certain manufacturers in Ohio and elsewhere are building Reapers, with DODGE'S SELF-RAKE attached, we ask you to furnish us the names of all persons vending or purchasing such machines, as we have never licensed any person or persons to manufacture said SELF-RAKE, or any part thereof, and will prosecute to the full extent of the law all persons manufacturing, selling or using said Self-rake except of our own manufacture.

JOHN A. DODGE, President.

We have that confidence in this machine that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test it with any other machine they may wish, and keep the one that gives the most satisfaction.

Farmers wanting Droppers attached can be accommodated.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we should refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold, viz:

Henry Culp	Peter Mackley,
John B. Lear,	Wm. Furney,
Jesse D. Newman,	Elisha Penrose,
George F. Miller,	John Deardorff,

Henry Slyer,	John Bender,
Christian Shriver,	John Ecker,
Ross Hunter,	Henry King,
John Lower,	Andrew Welkert,
John N. Boyer,	J. J. Kerr.
George Philips.

On Hand a few Second Hand Reapers.

Also, WIRE-TOOTH HAY RAKERS, of different make, amongst which is the Brandt Rake. A few PLOUGHS of different kinds. Thresher and Separator one of the best and cheapest ever offered in the county. HARRISBURG FANNING MILL and Farm Implements generally.

Persons wishing to examine machines will find them at the Warehouse of DAVID WILLS & SON, Gettysburg, Pa., or at the residence of the subscriber, 3 miles from Gettysburg, on the Harrisburg road.

EXTRAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND in case of breakage. Persons wanting Circulars will address the subscriber, Gettysburg, Pa.
